1 Add Users

Using the Users application, you as a registered user can invite other individuals in your organization in different roles. For example, if you have logged in as an Administrator at Carrier, you can invite other individuals in your organization as dispatchers and administrators. You can choose the role in which you want to invite the new user, specify first and last name and email address. An email is sent to the user at the given email address. The user can accept the invite received in the email. The user is guided to choose the password at the SAP ID Service before redirected to the application.

i Note

Using the Delete button, the Administrator of a company can delete the respective user from the SAP Networked Logistics Hub network.

For more information about roles, see SAP Networked Logistics Hub - User Roles [external document] .

Role and invite scenarios

- Administrator at Carrier can invite a dispatcher and another administrator and add truck drivers
- Administrator at Hub can invite a Hub manager and another administrator

Business Value

- Simplified onboarding of business users
- Lower total cost of ownership due to simplified and distributed administration with business users

Features

- Add or edit user details
- Search for users. You can search entering the entire search term, part of the search term with asterick(*), as suffix or prefix, or enter a major part of the search term. You must enter at least three characters to search.
